

COLLEGE SEARCH RESOURCES DURING COVID-19

NACAC College Admission: Status Update Tool

Visit this website to access a central location for up-to-date information regarding changes in specific college's admission process. You can search by individual schools or browse all updates.

Strive Virtual College Exploration

Even though the live fair is over, you can scroll through the website and see full recordings of different presentations. Hear from college admissions professionals about how they're handling these unprecedented times.

SCOIR Explore Colleges Using SCOIR

Check out our website for introduction videos. Once you log into SCOIR, you can use a variety of college searches to explore. If you want to get a feel for a campus community, check out The Wall tab on the college's SCOIR page. Some colleges even have a "Let's Go" option on their home page for virtual tours (Ex: University of Pittsburgh)

Explore Social Media

You can find out a lot about what's important to a college based on what they choose to share on their official social media accounts. Search and follow some of your favorites.

Individual College Websites

Many colleges are offering virtual tours, virtual open houses, and more. Be sure to visit the admissions websites for individual schools to find out more.